

Our household has benefited from the Do Not Call enforcement. If it were to be taken out of effect, and telemarketers can call cell phones too, it would cost me money for minutes usage. Do not remove this law.